

EARN YOUR STRINGS.

Starting this fall, no junior at Sleepy Hollow moves up because of a birthday. Every player climbs the Pathway — five ball colors, five strings per color, three real tests per string — and every string is earned on court, on Test Day, in front of everyone. Pass your fifth string and you're promoted to the next ball color, announced by name.

5 strings per color · 3 tests per string · string 5 is the promotion · Yellow 5 earns the High Performance invite

— HOW A MONTH WORKS

- 1 First class: the month's tests are posted on the fence. Every kid knows exactly what they're chasing.
- 2 All month: coaches train toward the tests. The tests are the curriculum — nothing is hidden.
- 3 Test Day — the last class of the month: tests run in the final 15 minutes. Parents are invited to stay and watch.
- 4 The string moment: pass all three and a colored string is tied onto your racquet at pickup, announced by name, in front of everyone.

To test, a player must: attend 3 of the month's 4 classes, and be registered for the next month.

Not everyone passes — and that's the point. Passed tests are banked: clear 2 of 3 and next month you retest only one. Nothing is ever taken away.

— THE TESTS ARE REAL

RED · STRING 4 — SERVE & SCORE

- 3 of 5 underhand serves into the correct box
- Say the score in order — 0, 15, 30, 40, game
- Call your own ball in or out — and mean it

GREEN · STRING 5 — MATCH PLAY ★ PROMOTION

- Win a set to 4 against a peer, self-scored, no coach
- Play one full club or team match
- Call every line honestly for a whole set

YELLOW · STRING 2 — SERVE

- 6 of 10 first serves in with real pace
- 8 of 10 second serves in with spin
- Serve to the corner that's called, 4 of 6

Your kid's own page. Every family gets a private link: your player's spot on the climb, every string they've earned with the date, and the exact three tests standing between them and the next one — including which they've already passed.
